Sec. 10-5. Bradfordville sector plan.

(a) Purpose and intent. The purpose and intent of this ordinance [Ord. No. 00-31, adopted July 11, 2000] is to establish new standards for development in the Bradfordville Study Area so as to discourage urban sprawl; preserve the rural character of the area; protect and enhance the natural surface water bodies in the area; eliminate potential stormwater problems in the area and reduce harm from flooding; maintain commercial services commensurate with population growth; provide for the development of a Bradfordville commercial center; establish design standards for development review; appropriately locate land uses; provide for an efficient and effective transportation system; ensure the availability of concurrent and adequate public facilities (including transportation, stormwater management, sewer, water, parks and open space); establish appropriate and necessary standards for the development and use of land in the Bradfordville Study Area; protect scenic viewsheds; protect historic resources; and establish appropriate design standards for development to protect the health, safety and welfare of current and future residents.

(b) Findings.

- (1) The board hereby finds that the land uses, amount, rate, density and intensity of new development and all other aspects pertaining to development as set forth in the Bradfordville Sector Plan for the Bradfordville Study Area are compatible with and further the objectives, policies, land uses, and densities and intensities set forth in the comprehensive plan and are consistent with the comprehensive plan, including but not limited to the provisions relating to the Bradfordville Study Area.
- (2) The board hereby finds that the provisions contained in this ordinance [Ord. No. 00-31, adopted July 11, 2000] amending the Land Development Code of Leon County for the Bradfordville Study Area are consistent with the Comprehensive Plan and the Bradfordville Sector Plan.

(c) Adoption of the Bradfordville Sector Plan. The board hereby adopts the Bradfordville Sector Plan as adopted July 11, 2000, by Ordinance 00-31, and incorporates said plan by reference. (Ord. No. 00-31, §§ 1-3, 7-11-00)

Sec. 10-6. Stay of expiration of development order approvals.

Notwithstanding any provision regarding the expiration of development orders, any challenge of a development order approval will act as a stay of the time periods regarding expiration of the development order approval until all litigation including any appellate proceedings is concluded. (Ord. No. 01-04, § 1, 2-20-01)

Editor's note—Ord. No. 01-04, § 1, adopted Feb. 20, 2001, amended this Code by providing for the stays on the expiration of development order approvals. To maintain the numeric sequencing of this Code, these provisions have been included as § 10-6 at the discretion of the editor to read as herein set out. See the Code Comparative Table.

Sec. 10-7. Authority to enter.

For the purpose of inspection for compliance with the terms of all land development regulations and permits issued pursuant thereto, the submission of an application for development approval pursuant to this chapter shall confirm or
